

DAMIEN S. BERG

BA, BS, CRCST,
Regional Manager for UCHHealth

Damien Berg, BA, BS, CRCST, is the Regional Manager for UCHHealth in Northern Colorado and Direct Manager for Medical Center of the Rockies and Poudre Valley Hospitals. He has 27 years, experience serving in multiple health-related capacities, including roles as an emergency medical technician, retired combat medic, surgical technician, and sterile processing technician and manager.

Berg is an International speaker and has written several articles sterile processing leadership. Berg is proud to serve as Immediate Past President of IAHCMSM2019-2020 and proudly served on this year's Scientific Committee for the WFHSS Affairs. He is an AAMI voting board member on ST79 (hospital steam sterilization) ST91 (flexible and semi-rigid endoscope processing) an, CO-Chair of TIR 12 (Instructions for reprocessing) and past Co-Chair for both ST77 (rigid containers) and ST86 (quality systems).

Finally, He serves as US TAG for ISO/TC 198/WG 12 (Information for reprocessing of resterilizable devices) and 304 (Healthcare organization management).

